Olney Art Association Juried Exhibit on Display at Activity Center

Gaithersburg, MD (November 10, 2020) – The City of Gaithersburg presents an exhibit featuring juried artwork by members of the Olney Art Association. The exhibit is on display from November 20, 2020, through January 18, 2021, at the Activity Center at Bohrer Park, 506 South Frederick Avenue in Gaithersburg. Viewing hours are Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. All visitors must wear masks and practice social distancing. This exhibit was juried by Mary Proenza, Assistant Professor of Fine Arts and Director of the Barry Gallery at Marymount University in Arlington, VA.

The Olney Art Association \(OAA\), located in Olney, Maryland and founded in 1974, is a creative professional learning community of visual fine artists whose expertise include a variety of media, such as oil painting, watercolor, acrylics, pastel, colored pencil, pen and ink, printmaking, mixed media, sculpture, ceramics, digital art, and photography. Now in its forty-fifth year, OAA was founded by five artists in the Olney area to support each other and find ways to exhibit their works. The Association encourages artists and aspiring artists to study, practice and exhibit their original works as much as possible. This current exhibit features works by 26 members.

Please note that all images are copyrighted by the artist and most of the artwork is for sale. For more information, please contact 301-258-6394, e-mail artgalleries@gaitHERsburgmd.gov, or visit the Activity Center Gallery webpage.
